THE CORPORATION DE DÉVELOPPEMENT COMMUNAUTAIRE ACTION SOLIDARITÉ GRAND PLATEAU (CDC ASGP) the

neighbourhood round table of the Plateau-Mont-Royal works to promote values of solidarity, justice and equity for all developments the Saint-Louis, Mile-End, Plateau-Mont-Royal et Milton Park in the social, community and economic fields. Our mission is to build solidarities amongst organizations in order to develop integrated social development strategies to act collectively to improve the conditions of everyone in the Grand Plateau.

As of 2013, the CDC ASGP set itself the mandate of bringing together the various actors who are concerned by the issues surrounding homelessness in the Grand Plateau. The Comité itinérance of the CDC ASGP was created to document the issues and different realities of homelessness, as to have a better understanding and ensure interventions towards the homeless and at risk communities is adequate, as well as to have the issues related to homelessness recognized by political and administrative actors.

Bringing together over twenty community and institutional organizations, the Comité itinérance of the CDC ASGP aims to develop collective strategies to :

FACILITATE ACCESS TO SERVICES FOR PEOPLE EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS OR WHO ARE AT RISK OF HOMELESSNESS;

IMPROVE COHABITATION IN THE PUBLIC SPACE.
